EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

☐ Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

☐ Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

☐ Active military duty in a military combat zone.

☐ 5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the information provided above is true and correct.

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

ATTORNEY - CLIENT LEGAL SERVICE AGREEMENT AND HANDBOOK BETWEEN LAKELAW ("A DEBT RELIEF AGENCY") AND BRENT JOHNSON ("CLIENT")

RE: Engagement Letter for Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Welcome to Lakelaw. We thank you for choosing us to represent you in your Chapter 7 case. We look forward to working with you and serving your legal needs in this matter.

We would like to offer you the following engagement agreement for your Chapter 7 bankruptcy case based on our initial brief and preliminary analysis of your situation. Our agreement may be subject to change based on a more detailed analysis of your case and the "Means Test" as required by the Bankruptcy Code. We will inform you if any such changes are required.

INTRODUCTION

Our purpose in representing you in a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code is to assist you in obtaining a discharge in bankruptcy. This will relieve you of your obligation to pay most, if not all of your debts. We will also assist you in reaffirming, or agreeing to continue to pay, any debts you have, secured by real estate or personal property you would like to keep.

Since the Bankruptcy Code was amended in 2005, Congress has set up consumer bankruptcy cases like an obstacle course. We can provide guidance, but you must do your part and carefully follow our instructions. Otherwise, your case could be dismissed or you could lose your discharge.

Under the Bankruptcy Code, clients and lawyers must prepare detailed schedules and statements to be filed in the Bankruptcy Court. These papers will be reviewed very closely by the United States Trustee, which is a division of the United States Department of Justice, responsible for oversight of all bankruptcy cases. Your papers also will be reviewed by a private Chapter 7 trustee and perhaps the court. So accuracy and honesty in all respects is vital.

Failure to be accurate and honest in all respects could lead to loss of your right to receive a discharge in bankruptcy and in extreme cases could lead to serious criminal prosecution.

Once you decide to hire us as your bankruptcy attorneys, please let your creditors know. They cannot call or harass you anymore. They must call us, and if they don't, we can sue them under the Fair Debt Collection Practice Act. If you decide to hire us as, you can't use your credit cards anymore. We'll ask you if you have used them since credit card companies may try to make you pay for recent charges even though you have filed bankruptcy. If someone other than you is paying your attorney's fees, please let us know. They will have to sign a waiver recognizing that you are our client and that we report to you even though someone else is paying your fee.

Because bankruptcy is a complex process – some say unnecessarily complex – our Agreement with you is not just a statement of our duties to you and your duties to us and the court. It is also a guide to the process and a handbook for you to refer to in making sure that you do what you are supposed to in dealing with the bankruptcy system, the trustee, and the bankruptcy court.

YOUR OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE BANKRUPTCY CODE:

The Bankruptcy Code imposes some very detailed and specific obligations on you as a debtor. It is vital that you do all of these things for you to be able to get your discharge. We will do everything we can do to do our part and we'll depend on you to do everything required on your part.

- ❑ You must take credit counseling from an approved provider within 180 days prior to filing your petition, but before the actual day on which you file your petition
- ❑ You must provide accurate and complete information for your bankruptcy petition, schedule and statement of financial affairs
- ❑ You must disclose all lawsuits you are involved in whether you are a plaintiff or defendant, even if they haven't started in court yet
- ❑ You must disclose all transfers of property to friends or relatives within the past 4 years
- ❑ You must disclose all transfers of anything for less than it was worth within the past 4 years
- ❑ You must disclose all payments to creditors 90 days before you file your bankruptcy case
- ❑ You must disclose all payments to friends or relatives on account of debts within the year before you file your bankruptcy case
- ❑ You must decide whether to keep, surrender, or redeem (refinance) loans secured by real estate or personal property and indicate that on your bankruptcy petition
- ❑ You must give us your most recent income tax return or tax transcript and all "pay advices" or "pay stubs" received in the 60 days before you file your bankruptcy petition
- ❑ You must cooperate fully with the bankruptcy trustee appointed to oversee your case
- ❑ If your case is selected for audit, you must cooperate with the auditor
- ❑ You must appear at the "meeting of creditors" with the trustee appointed to oversee your case, which will happen within 30-40 days of filing of your case
- ❑ You must complete any reaffirmation agreement within 45 days after the date first scheduled for your first meeting of creditors
- ❑ You must complete a financial management course – we recommend BE Adviser at www.beadviser.com – 45 days after your first meeting of creditors. The fee for this course is $11.00 that you will pay BE Adviser directly. If you do not take the course and provide the certificate, your case will be closed, but not discharged. We must then reopen the case and charge you both attorney's fees and costs for this process.

STEP ONE: ANALYSIS OF THE "MEANS TEST"

Before you can file a Chapter 7 case – and get a discharge of all your debts:

Congress requires that you prove that your Chapter 7 case is not an “abuse” of the bankruptcy system. People who make less than the median income for their family-size are not presumed to be abusing the system by filing Chapter 7. We still have to examine your budget of income and expenses to see if your case might be considered to be an abuse. People who have disposable income are supposed to file Chapter 13 cases in most instances.

People earning more than the median income are presumed to be abusing the bankruptcy system by filing Chapter 7 unless they pass the “means test”. To see whether you pass the means test, we complete a detailed analysis. We charge you for this whether or not you decide to file a bankruptcy case. If you do file a bankruptcy case, the charge for the “means test” analysis is applied to your overall attorney’s fees for bankruptcy services.

Your First Homework Assignment:

In order for us to determine whether you are eligible to file a Chapter 7 case, we have to analyze and evaluate your financial situation. And in order to do this, we are required to perform a “means test analysis.” To do this, you must provide the following documents to us.

- ☐ Pay stubs or payment advices from your salaried employment for the past six months.
 - If you have not been employed during this period, you must give us your unemployment records including payments of unemployment benefits
 - If you are self-employed, you must give us evidence of your gross income and any business expenses deducted from your gross income for the past six months
 - We must have records from the six-month period before your filing date. If we have to redo your means test because your filing is delayed, we will charge additional fees
- ☐ Current credit report. You may obtain this from www.annualcreditreport.com
 - We highly recommend that you obtain a recent credit report from all three major credit reporting agencies (Experian, Equifax, TransUnion)
- ☐ Completed “Means Test Questionnaire”

If you earn less than the median income for a family your size, you “pass” the means test without the need for additional analysis. However, if you make more than the median income, you must provide additional information for us to determine if you are eligible to file a Chapter 7 case.

Here is the data we absolutely need to perform the mandatory means test analysis as prescribed by Congress for those earning more than the median income. Please have it ready if we request it. You may want to check-off each item as you gather and send your records.

- ☐ Last 90 days of bills that you got from your creditors regardless whether you paid them.
- ☐ Last 90 days of bank statements and check registers
- ☐ Documents regarding any sale or transfer of any property within the last 2 years
- ☐ Documents regarding any transfer or payments to relatives within the last 2 years
- ☐ Income Tax Returns for the past 3 years
- ☐ Copies of ~~motor vehicle~~ certificates of title

- ☐ Copies of mortgages recorded against your real estate
- ☐ Copies of any listing contracts for your real estate
- ☐ Copies of any pension plan, IRA or other retirement accounts and data concerning any withdrawals within the past 6 months
- ☐ Copies of life insurance policies you currently own, particularly with cash surrender value
- ☐ Copies of any pleadings for any lawsuit involving you
- ☐ Copies of any financing documents for any refinancing or non-purchase money, second or third mortgage loans obtained with the last 3 years.
- ☐ Copies of the most recent bills on mortgages, auto loans, life and health insurance policies
- ☐ Records of actual medical expenses during the past six months.
- ☐ Records of tuition for private or parochial school paid during the past six months.
- ☐ Records concerning charitable contributions given during the past six months.
- ☐ Records concerning internet or telecommunication expenses during the past six months
- ☐ Records concerning child support or alimony paid or received during the past six months.

Please provide all of this information to our Consumer Bankruptcy Coordinator as soon as possible. We cannot even begin to work on your bankruptcy petition, statement of financial affairs or filing until we have completed your "means test analysis." That's because we can't know for sure that you are eligible to file a Chapter 7 case until we complete your "means test analysis."

In some instances, Chapter 13 may be a better option, in which case, we will offer you the standard Chapter 13 Engagement Agreement and fees as prescribed by the Bankruptcy Court. If Chapter 13 is an option, we will discuss the benefits and risks with you so you can make an informed decision. If you file a Chapter 13, the $500 means test fee is applied to your Chapter 13 case. If you choose not to file, the $500 means test fee is not refundable.

Your Second Homework Assignment:

You must complete the credit counseling class. We recommend www.debtorcc.org; the class costs $9.95 and you pay them directly.

Both you and your spouse, if your spouse is filing, must be present for the credit counseling. Spend a full hour reviewing and discussing the material in the course. You must complete the course and send a responsive email after completing the course. You must have this certificate before you file.

STEP TWO: BANKRUPTCY PETITION & STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

Paying your Fee:

Once we have completed your means test, you and we at Lakelaw want to get your case filed as soon as possible because the "means test" accounts for your situation during the most recent six months. If another month passes, the original means test analysis is no longer valid. We'll have to do it again taking into account your income and expenses for the most recent month.

Most clients provide basic information necessary through our online questionnaire. Please check frequently with our Consumer Bankruptcy Coordinator to ensure that we are informed about all of your assets, debts, and financial activities for the past several years. Don't leave out anything. You will have opportunities to talk with your attorneys to discuss all aspects of your case.

During this phase, you will have both legal questions and technical questions. Most of your questions can be answered by our experienced and capable Consumer Bankruptcy Coordinators as well as the information on our website. Please email legal questions you may have to any of our lawyers with whom you have worked. If a brief phone call is needed, your lawyer will contact you.

In general, after your initial consultation with a Lakelaw attorney, you won't need to meet personally with your attorney until your petition is ready to be filed. At that time, you and your attorney will again review your entire situation to be sure that everything is in order.

FEES & CHARGES FOR SERVICES AND PAYMENT TERMS & PERFORMANCE OF "STANDARD SERVICES"

Lakelaw agrees to proceed on your behalf, as described in this contract, for $1,600 in attorneys' fees. You must provide $335.00 for the chapter 7 filing fee.

"WE ARE A DEBT RELIEF AGENCY. WE HELP PEOPLE FILE FOR BANKRUPTCY RELIEF UNDER THE BANKRUPTCY CODE"

You understand that Lakelaw is unwilling to represent you without an advance payment retainer. You agree this is an "advance payment retainer" and it is placed immediately in our general account.

At your option, you may require us to treat this as a security retainer. The choice of retainer is yours alone. The reason we propose to treat this as an advance payment retainer is that this is perhaps the first time and only time you will be our client. We have not made any inquiries into your credit-worthiness and you desire our immediate attention to this matter. We will immediately or soon thereafter be utilizing the funds provided in this advance retainer in any event. We agree that it is to your advantage that we give our immediate and dedicated attention to this matter.

Accordingly, by executing this agreement, you agree the retainer is an advance payment retainer.

If You Decide Not to File Your Bankruptcy Case:

If you decide not to file your bankruptcy case, you understand and agree that we will have expended substantial time and effort on your behalf. Under these circumstances, we will bill you for our time at our standard hourly rates, ranging from $650/hour for Mr. Leibowitz to $100/hour for our paralegals. The maximum that we will bill you will be the funds you have paid us until the date you determine not to file your case and so advise us. Any unearned fees will be paid. Costs not utilized will be applied to fees earned. Otherwise, fees and costs will be refunded to you.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
